

The new rules being proposed for unsolicited faxes would make it very labor intensive for our staff to get an authorization every time we sent a broadcast to our members. Many of our members prefer to get information from us via fax and not emails or U.S. mail. We are definitely against removing the "established business relationship" from the regulations. Sending faxes is a cost effective ways to disseminate information to our membership and receive information from our National organizations and business partners.